- 56.2 The Company has not during that time or before the expiry of the three-month period referred to in Article 56.4 below received any indication of the whereabouts or existence of the Member or person entitled to such shares by death, bankruptcy or operation of law;
- 56.3 During the 12-year period, at least three (3) dividends in respect of the Shares in question have become payable and no dividend during that period has been claimed by the Member; and
- 56.4 Upon expiry of the 12-year period, the Company has caused notice to be given in accordance with applicable law, rules or regulations and the Exchange Rules, of its intention to sell such Shares, and a period of three (3) months has elapsed since such notice and the relevant Exchange has been notified of such intention.
- 57 The net proceeds of any such sale pursuant to Article 56 above shall belong to the Company and upon receipt by the Company of such net proceeds it shall become indebted to the former Member for an amount equal to such net proceeds.

58 To give effect to any sale contemplated pursuant to Article 56 above, the Company may appoint any person to execute as transferor an instrument of transfer of the said shares and such other documents as are necessary to effect the transfer, and such documents shall be as effective as if they had been executed by the registered holder of or person entitled by transmission to such shares, and the title of the transferee shall not be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating thereto. The net proceeds of sale shall belong to the Company which shall be obliged to account to the former Member or other person previously entitled as aforesaid for an amount equal to such net proceeds and shall enter the name of such former Member or other person in the books of the Company as a creditor for such amount. No trust shall be created in respect of the debt, no interest shall be payable in respect of the same and the Company shall not be required to account for any money earned on the net proceeds, which may be employed in the business of the Company or invested in such investments (other than shares or other securities in or of the Company or its holding company if any) or as the Board may from time to time determine.

Amendment of memorandum of association, change of address of registered office, and alteration of share capital

59 Except for matters stipulated by laws, administrative regulations or these Articles to be adopted by Special Resolutions, other matters shall be adopted by Ordinary Resolutions. The following matters shall be adopted by Special Resolutions:

59.6 Approving voluntary withdrawal of Shares from trading on the existing stock exchange(s), and resolving not to trade on the existing stock exchange(s), or applying to trade on or transfer to other share trading platforms.

- 60 For the purpose of determining Members entitled to notice of or to vote at any general meeting or any adjournment thereof, or Members entitled to receive payment of any dividend, or in order to make a determination of Members for any other proper purpose, the Board may provide that the Register of Members shall be closed for transfers for a stated period in accordance with Article 24 above. If the Register of Members shall be so closed for the purpose of determining Members entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of Members, the record date for such determination shall be the date of the last day of the relevant closure period of the Register of Members.
- 61 In lieu of, or apart from, closing the Register of Members, the Board may fix in advance or arrears a date as the record date for any such determination of Members entitled to notice of or to vote at a general meeting or any adjournment thereof, and for the purpose of determining the Members entitled to receive payment of any dividend. Such record date shall not be more than sixty (60) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action. A determination of the Members entitled to notice of or to vote at a general meeting shall apply to any adjournment of such meeting; provided, however, that the Board may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.
- 62 If the Register of Members is not so closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of Members entitled to notice of or to vote at a general meeting or Members entitled to receive payment of a dividend, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the Board declaring such dividend is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of Members. When a determination of Members entitled to vote at any general meeting has been made as provided in this section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof.

To the extent permitted by applicable laws, regulations and the Exchange Rules, the general meeting may authorize the Board to exercise relevant authorities and duties through appropriate procedures.

- 64 The Company shall, if required by the Companies Law, other applicable law, rules or regulations or the Exchange Rules, hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting each year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it. The annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Board shall appoint, provided that the period between the date of one annual general meeting of the Company and that of the next shall not be longer than such period as applicable law, rules or regulations or the Exchange Rules permit. At these meetings the report of the Board (if any) shall be presented.
- 65 The Board or the Chairman of the Board may, at any time it/he deems appropriate, proceed to convene a general meeting of the Company. Members who individually or collectively hold 10% or more of the Company's Shares shall have the right to requisition the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting. General meetings of the Company may be held at such place, either within or without the Cayman Islands, as determined by the Board. The Board may, in its sole discretion, determine that the meeting shall not be held at any place, but may instead be held solely by means of remote communication as follows:
 - 65.1 If authorized by the Board in its sole discretion, and subject to such guidelines and procedures as the Board may adopt, Members and proxies entitled to attend and vote but not physically present at a general meeting of Members may, by means of remote communication:
 - 65.1.1 Participate in a general meeting; and

65.2 If authorised by the Board, any vote taken by written ballot may be satisfied by a ballot submitted by electronic transmission, provided that any such electronic transmission must either set forth or be submitted with information from which it can be determined that the electronic transmission was authorized by the Member or proxy.

Notice of general meetings

66 At least twenty-one (21) days' notice must be given of any annual general meeting and any other general meetings (including extraordinary general meeting) must be given at least fourteen (14) days' notice. Every notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is given or deemed to be given and of the day for which it is given and shall specify such details as are required by applicable law, rules or regulations and the Exchange Rules.

67 A general meeting of the Company shall, whether or not the notice specified in Article 66 has been given and whether or not the provisions of the Articles regarding general meetings have been complied with, be deemed to have been duly convened if applicable law, rules or regulations and the Exchange Rules so permit and it is so agreed:

67.1 In the case of a general meeting called as an annual general meeting, by all the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat or their proxies; and

67.2 In the case of any other general meetings, by the majority in number of Members or their proxies having a right to attend and vote at the meeting (together representing at least 95% of the total voting rights at the meeting of all the Members).

68 The notice convening an annual general meeting shall specify the meeting as such, and the notice convening a meeting to pass a special resolution shall specify the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution. Notice of every general meeting shall be given to all Members other than such as, under the provisions hereof or the terms of issue of the shares they hold, people who are not entitled to receive such notice from the Company.

69 There shall appear with reasonable prominence in every notice of general meetings of the Company a statement that a Member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not be a Member of the Company. If the Member is a corporation, it may appoint a representative to attend any general meeting of the Company and, where such corporation is so represented, it shall be treated as being present at any meeting in person.

- 70 The accidental omission to give notice of a general meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings of that meeting.
- 71 In cases where instruments of proxy are sent out with notices, the accidental omission to send such instrument of proxy to, or the non-receipt of such instrument of proxy by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate any resolution passed or any proceeding at any such meeting.
- 72 No business may be transacted at any general meeting, other than business that is either (A) specified in the notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto) given by or at the direction of the Board (or any duly authorized committee thereof), (B) otherwise properly brought before an annual general meeting by or at the direction of the Board (or any duly authorized committee thereof) or (C) otherwise properly brought before an annual general meeting by any Member of the Company who (i) is a Member of record on both (x) the date of the giving of the notice by such Member provided for in this Article 72 and (y) the record date for the determination of Members entitled to vote at such annual general meeting, and who individually or collectively hold 3% or more of the total number of shares issued by the Company with voting rights, and (ii) complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Article 72.
- 72.1 In addition to any other applicable requirements, for business to be properly brought before an annual general meeting by a Member, such Member must have given timely notice thereof in proper written form to the Secretary of the Company.
- 72.2 For all matters other than for the nomination for election of a Director to be made by a Member of the Company, to be timely, such Member's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Company not less than sixty (60) days nor more than ninety (90) days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual general meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual general meeting is advanced by more than thirty (30) days or delayed by more than sixty (60) days from such anniversary date, notice by the Member to be timely must be delivered not earlier than the ninetieth (90th) day prior to such annual general meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the sixtieth (60th) day prior to such annual general meeting or the tenth (10th) day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made.
- 72.3 To be in proper written form, a Member's notice to the Secretary must set forth as to each matter such Member proposes to bring before the annual general meeting (1) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the annual general meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual general meeting, (2) the name and record address of such Member, (3) the class or series and number of shares of the Company which are owned beneficially or of record by such Member, (4) a description of all arrangements or understandings between such Member and any other person or persons (including their names) in connection with the proposal of such business by such Member and any material interest of such Member in such business and (5) a representation that such Member intends to appear in person or by proxy at the annual general meeting to bring such business before the meeting.

72.4 No business shall be conducted at the annual general meeting except business brought before the annual general meeting in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article 72, provided, however, that, once business has been properly brought before the annual general meeting in accordance with such procedures, nothing in this Article 72 shall be deemed to preclude discussion by any Member of any such business. If the Chairman of an annual general meeting determines that business was not properly brought before the annual general meeting in accordance with the foregoing procedures, the Chairman shall declare to the meeting that the business was not properly brought before the meeting and such business shall not be transacted.

72.5 In addition to any other applicable requirements, for a Member to nominate a director for election, such Member must (A) be a Member of record on both (x) the date of the giving of the notice by such Member provided for in this Article 72 and (y) the record date for the determination of Members entitled to vote at such annual general meeting and, for a nomination of non-independent director candidates, such Members must individually or collectively hold 3% or more of the total number of Shares issued by the Company with voting rights; in the case of nomination of independent director candidates, such Members shall individually or collectively hold 1% or more of the total number of Shares issued by the Company with voting rights and (B) send an appropriate notice in writing to the Secretary of the Company. If a Member is entitled to vote only for a specific class or category of directors at a meeting of the Members, such Member's right to nominate one or more persons for election as a director at the meeting shall be limited to such class or category of directors.

72.6 To be timely for purposes of Article 72.5 in connection with the annual general meeting, a Member's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Company. In the event the Company calls an extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of electing one or more directors to the Board, any Member entitled to vote for the election of such director(s) at such meeting and satisfying the requirements specified above may nominate a person or persons (as the case may be) for election to such position(s) as are specified in the Company's notice of such meeting, but only if the Member notice required hereof shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive office of the Company. The period for lodgment of the notices by a Member referred to in this Article shall commence no earlier than the day after the dispatch of the notice of the meeting appointed for such election and end no later than seven (7) days prior to the date of such meeting and shall be for a minimum period of seven (7) days.

72.7 To be in proper written form for purposes of Article 72.5, a Member's notice to the Secretary must be set forth (A) as to each person whom the Member proposes to nominate for election as a director (1) the name, age, business address and residence address of the person, (2) the principal occupation or employment of the person, (3) the class or series and number of shares of the Company, if any, which are owned beneficially or of record by the person and (4) any other information relating to the person that would be required to be disclosed pursuant to any Exchange Rules; and (B) as to the Member giving notice (1) the name and record address of such Member, (2) the class or series and number of shares of the Company which are owned beneficially or of record by such Member, (3) a description of all arrangements or understandings between such Member and each proposed nominee and any other person or persons (including their names) pursuant to which the nomination(s) are to be made by such Member, (4) a representation that such Member intends to appear in person or by proxy at the annual meeting to nominate the person(s) named in its notice and (5) any other information relating to such Member that would be required to be disclosed pursuant to any Exchange Rules. Such notice must be accompanied by a written consent of each proposed nominee to being named as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected.

72.8 No person shall be eligible for election as a director of the Company unless nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Articles under this heading of "NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS". If the Chairman of an annual general meeting determines that a nomination was not made in accordance with the foregoing procedures, the Chairman shall declare to the meeting and such defective nomination shall be disregarded. This Article 72 shall not apply to any nomination of a director in an election in which only the holders of one or more series of Preferred Shares of the Company are entitled to vote (unless otherwise provided in terms of such series of Preferred Shares).

Proceedings at general meetings

73 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present. Two (2) Members or more shall be present at a general meeting in person or by proxy in order to meet the required quorum. However, if the Company only has one (1) Member at a certain time, the presence of that Member in person or by proxy at the general meeting shall be deemed as meeting the requirement on the quorum for convening a general meeting.

- 74 If within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved and in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other time or such other place as the Board may determine.
- 75 The Chairman, if any, of the Board shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting of the Company, or if there is no such Chairman, or if he shall not be present within one hour after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting, or is unwilling to act, the Directors present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting or if all of the Directors present decline to take the chair, then the Members present shall choose one of their own number to be Chairman of the meeting.
- 76 If at any general meeting no Director is willing to act as Chairman or if no Director is present within one hour after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Members present shall choose one of their numbers to be Chairman of the meeting.
- 77 The Chairman may, with the consent of any general meeting duly constituted hereunder, and shall if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a general meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting; save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned general meeting. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- 78 At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting may be decided on a poll. A poll may be demanded by (i) the Chairman of the meeting, (ii) at least five Members present or (iii) Members holding one-tenth (1/10) of the voting rights of the total voting rights of all Members having the right to attend and vote at the Meeting. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if the Chairman of the meeting agrees to this.
- 79 A poll shall be taken in such manner and at such time and place, not being more than thirty (30) days from the date of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote was taken, as the Chairman directs. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the general meeting at which the poll was demanded. Any other business other than that upon which a poll is to be taken or is contingent thereon may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll. For the avoidance of doubt, all Members, whether or not present in person or by proxy at the meeting at which the poll is called, may participate in the poll, where the poll takes place after the meeting.

- 80 In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the general meeting at which the poll is taken shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.
- 81 The Members shall be entitled to supervise the operation of the Company and make suggestions or inquiries in accordance with the laws and regulations at the place where the Company is listed and these Articles. Directors and senior managers shall give explanations on the Members' reasonable inquiries and suggestions at a general meeting.

Votes of Members

- 82 Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, every Member of record present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for each share registered in his name in the Register of Members. The ability of the Members to engage in cumulative voting is hereby specifically denied. Where the Company has knowledge that any Member is, under the rules of the Exchange, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution of the Company or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution of the Company, any votes cast by or on behalf of such Member in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.
- 83 In the case of joint holders of record the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register of Members.
- 84 A Member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court, having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote by his committee, receiver, curator bonis, or other person in the nature of a committee, receiver or curator bonis appointed by that court, and any such committee, receiver, curator bonis or other persons may vote by proxy.
- 85 No Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless he is registered as a Member of the Company on the record date for such meeting.
- 86 No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the general meeting or adjourned general meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered and every vote not disallowed at such general meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman of the general meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

- 87 Votes may be given either personally or by proxy. A Member may appoint more than one proxy or the same proxy under one or more instruments to attend and vote at a meeting and may appoint one proxy to vote both in favour of and against the same resolution in such proportion as specified in the instrument appointing the proxy. Where a Member appoints more than one proxy the instrument of proxy shall state which proxy is entitled to vote on a show of hands.

Proxy

- 88 The rules and procedures relating to the form of a proxy, the depositing or filing of proxies and voting pursuant to a proxy and any other matter incidental thereto shall be approved by the Board, subject to such rules and procedures as required by applicable law, rules or regulations or the Exchange Rules and as provided in the following Articles under this heading of "PROXIES".
- 89 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing and shall be executed under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or, if the appointor is a corporation under the hand of an senior manager or attorney duly authorised in that behalf; provided, however, that a Member may also authorise the casting of a vote by proxy pursuant to telephonic or electronically transmitted instructions (including, without limitation, instructions transmitted over the internet) obtained pursuant to procedures approved by the Board which are reasonably designed to verify that such instructions have been authorised by such Member. A proxy need not be a Member of the Company.
- 90 The instrument appointing a proxy may be in any usual or common form and may be expressed to be for a particular meeting or any adjournment thereof or generally until revoked; provided that it shall enable a Member, according to his intention, to instruct his proxy to vote in favour of or against (or in default of instructions or in the event of conflicting instructions, to exercise his discretion in respect of) each resolution to be proposed at the meeting to which the form of proxy relates. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to include the power to demand or join or concur in demanding a poll. Further, each form of proxy shall be deemed to include the power to vote on an adjournment or any other procedural matter put to a resolution at the meeting.

Corporate Members

- 91 Any corporation or other non-natural person which is a Member may in accordance with its constitutional documents, or in the absence of such provision by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or of any class of Members, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual Member.

- 92 If a recognised clearing house (or its nominee) is a Member of the Company it may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body or by power of attorney, authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its proxy(ies) or representative(s) at any general meeting of the Company or at any general meeting of any class of Members of the Company; provided that, if more than one person is so authorised, the proxy form or authorisation shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each such person is so authorised. A person so authorised pursuant to this provision shall be entitled to exercise the same rights and powers on behalf of the recognised clearing house (or its nominee) which he represents as that recognised clearing house (or its nominee) could exercise as if such person were an individual Member of the Company holding the number and class of shares specified in such proxy form or authorisation, including the right to vote individually on a show of hands, notwithstanding any contrary provision contained in these Articles.

Shares that may not be voted

- 93 Shares in the Company that are beneficially owned by the Company shall not be voted, directly or indirectly, at any meeting and shall not be counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares at any given time.

Directors

- 94 The number of Directors shall be nine (9) or such other number as shall be fixed from time to time by the Board; provided, however, that so long as shares of the Company are listed on any Exchange, the Board shall include such number of Independent Directors as applicable law, rules or regulations or the Exchange Rules require.
- 95 Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Shares to elect additional Directors under specified circumstances, the Directors shall be divided into three classes designated as Class I, Class II and Class III, respectively. Directors shall be assigned to each class in accordance with a resolution or resolutions adopted by the Board. At the first annual general meeting of Members following the initial meeting after the adoption of these Articles, the term of office of the Class I Directors shall expire and Class I Directors shall be elected for a full term of three years. At the second annual general meeting of Members following the initial meeting, the term of office of the Class II Directors shall expire and Class II Directors shall be elected for a full term of three years. At the third annual general meeting of Members following the initial meeting, the term of office of the Class III Directors shall expire and Class III Directors shall be elected for a full term of three years. At each succeeding annual general meeting of Members, Directors shall be elected for a full term of three years to succeed the Directors of the class whose terms expire at such annual general meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article 95, each Director shall serve until his successor is duly elected and qualified or until his death, resignation or removal. No decrease in the number of Directors constituting the Board shall shorten the term of any incumbent Director.

Remuneration of Directors

- 96 The remuneration to be paid to the Directors shall be such remuneration as the Board shall determine. Such remuneration shall be deemed to accrue from day to day. The Directors shall also be entitled to be paid their travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in going to, attending and returning from meetings of the Board, or any committee of the Board, or general meetings of the Company, or otherwise in connection with the business of the Company, or to receive a fixed allowance in respect thereof as may be determined by the Board from time to time, or a combination partly of one such method and partly the other.
- 97 The Board may by resolution approve additional remuneration to any Director of the Company undertaking any special work or services for, or undertaking any special mission on behalf of, the Company other than his ordinary routine work as a Director. Any fees paid to a Director who is also legal counsel or solicitor to the Company, or otherwise serves it in a professional capacity shall be in addition to his remuneration as a Director.
- 98 Payment to any Director or past Director of any sum by way of compensation for loss of office or as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from office (not being a payment to which the Director is contractually entitled) must first be approved by the Company in general meeting.

No minimum shareholding

- 99 No shareholding qualification is required to be held by a Director.

Directors' interests

- 100 A Director may hold any other office or place of profit under the Company (other than the office of Auditor) in conjunction with his office of Director for such period and on such terms as to remuneration and otherwise as the Board may determine.
- 101 A Director may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a Director or alternate Director.
- 102 A Director or alternate Director of the Company may be or become a director, managing director, joint managing director, deputy managing director, executive director, manager or other senior manager or member of any other company or otherwise interested in any company promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as member or otherwise, and no such Director or alternate Director shall be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefits received by him as a director, managing director, joint managing director, deputy managing director, executive director, manager or other senior manager or member of such other company.

- 103 Any contract or transaction between the Company or any of its subsidiaries and one or more of the Company's Directors or any of their associates (as defined under the Exchange Rules), senior managers or Members (or the affiliates of any Member), or between the Company or any of its subsidiaries and any other corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, association or other organization or other entity in which one or more of the Company's Directors or any of their close associates (as defined under the Exchange Rules), senior managers or Members (or the affiliates of any Member) serve as directors, senior managers, trustees or in a similar capacity or have a financial interest, shall be approved in accordance with applicable law, regulations or normative documents and the Exchange Rules. The making of any loans to any of the Company's Directors and their close associates (as defined under the Exchange Rules) shall be subject to the requirements of Hong Kong law and any other applicable law, rules or normative document and the Exchange Rules. For purposes of the preceding two sentences, if any such contract, transaction or loan is to be approved by the Board, the quorum necessary for the Board to vote on such contract, transaction or loan shall be a majority of the disinterested Directors (such "disinterested Directors" shall not include a Director who himself or whose close associate(s) (as defined under the Exchange Rules) has a material interest in any such contract, transaction or loan). Subject to the exceptions specified in these Articles, a Director shall not vote on any board resolution approving any contract, transaction, loan, arrangement or any other proposals in which he or any of his close associates has a material interest. Further, Directors shall declare their material interests in any contracts with the Company at the earliest meeting of the Board of Directors at which it is practicable for them to do so either specifically or by way of a general notice stating that, by reason of facts specified in the notice, they are to be regarded as interested in any contracts of a specified description which may subsequently be made by the Company.

Indemnity

164 The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Company) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, senior manager, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, senior manager, employee or agent of another Company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith, in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company, in a manner that was not willfully or grossly negligent, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith, in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, in a manner that was willfully or grossly negligent, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

164.1 The Company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, senior manager, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, senior manager, employee or agent of another Company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith, in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company and in a manner that was not willfully or grossly negligent, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Company unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

164.2 To the extent that a present or former director or senior manager of the Company has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Articles 164 and 164.1 above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

164.3 Any indemnification under Articles 164 and 164.1 above (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Company only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the present or former director, senior manager, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances, including whether or not the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Articles 164 and 164.1 above. Such determination shall be made, with respect to a person who is a Director or senior manager at the time of such determination, (i) by a majority vote of the Directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, or (ii) by a committee of such directors designated by majority vote of such Directors, even though less than a quorum, or (iii) if there are no such Directors, or if such Directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion or (iv) by the Members of the Company.

164.4 Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an senior manager or Director in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Director or senior manager to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company pursuant to this Article 164. Such expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by former directors and senior managers or other employees and agents may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the Company deems appropriate.

164.5 The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article 164 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any law, by-law, agreement, vote of Members or disinterested Directors or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.

164.6 For purposes of this Article 164, references to "other enterprises" shall include employee benefit plans; references to "fines" shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to an employee benefit plan; and references to "serving at the request of the Company" shall include any service as a Director, senior manager, employee or agent of the Company which imposes duties on, or involves service by, such Director, senior manager, employee or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants, or beneficiaries; and a person who acted in good faith, in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan and in a manner that was not willfully or grossly negligent shall be deemed to have acted in a manner "not opposed to the best interests of the Company" as referred to in this Article 164.

164.7 The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article 164 shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, senior manager, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

165 The Board may, notwithstanding any interest of the Directors in such action, authorize the Company to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person described in the above Article, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of the above Article.
